

EGG FOO BILL

1. take last night's leftover vegetable fried rice (which was delicious, but c'mon, who can eat all that?) and cover the bottom of a smallish (and buttered, obv) frying pan
2. take 2 (or 3, depending on size of pan, and amount of rice) of "team king" (tm) eggs, and whip them (literally) inside a (clean, obv) coffee cup
3. using said coffee cup, pour said scrambled eggs over said rice inside said pan
4. with wooden spoon, mix until cooked
5. serve promptly
6. die happy
